

Gorgeous Gorge in Eastern Kentucky

An hour and a quarter drive from Lexington takes you to scenic beauty and adventure that beckon you to head east on I-64 East to the Mountain Parkway. Enter the magnificence of the Daniel Boone National Forest and the Red River Gorge National Geological Area.

Powell County Tourism Commission - www.powellcountytourism.com/attractions/historical.htm
Stop by to see what there is to see, including 70 million years of wind and water sculpting.

Daniel Boone National Forest - www.fs.fed.us/r8/boone/index.shtml
Breathtaking scenery, as old as the hills.

Red River Gorge National Geological Area - www.fs.fed.us/r8/boone/districts/cumberland/redriver_gorge.shtml Known for its abundant natural stone arches, unusual rock formations, and spectacular sandstone cliffs, the Red River Gorge has been designated a geological area by the U.S. Forest Service.

Natural Bridge State Resort Park - www.parks.ky.gov/findparks/resortparks/nb/
Get a good look at the area's spectacular rugged cliff lines, rock shelters, rhododendron and natural arches.

Torrent Falls Climbing Adventure - www.torrentfalls.com
Guided climbing and rappelling (AMGA certified guide) for fun and adventure for families, groups and others. Torrent Falls is in a horseshoe-shaped canyon and has the first Via Ferrata system offered in the U.S.

Miguel's Pizza & Rock Climbing
What a great combination and good food! 1890 Natural Bridge Rd, (606) 663-1975.

Kentucky Reptile Zoo - www.kyreptilezoo.org
Absolutely "another roadside attraction!" See amazing reptiles, including one of the largest collections of venomous snakes in the world as seen on National Geographic TV, Animal Planet, and PBS!